

BIOSIGN ANNOUNCES $6.0 MILLION SOFTWARE and SERVICE SALE

Not for distribution in the United States or through United States wire services

TORONTO, ONTARIO, December 05, 2013 – Biosign Technologies Inc. (TSXV: BIO) (“Biosign” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has sold a $3.0 million software license to a large, publicly-traded healthcare services company based in the United Kingdom.

The client will receive a perpetual, worldwide, fully paid-up license of all the current versions of Biosign’s software systems. Including but not limited to Pulsewave Client; Pulsewave Website; VIMIS (Cloud Diagnostics™) and Healthanywhere platforms, which can be deployed within their worldwide operations.

Additional services of Biosign such as implementation support and user training will be made available to the client in a separate fixed price $3.0 million services agreement.

The definitive agreements are expected to be finalized by the end of calendar 2013. On closing, the client will pay a one-time license fee of CAD $3.0 million and an additional CAD $3.0 million service fee for implementation support and training.

Biosign CEO Robert Kaul commented: “This $6.0 million sale marks an important milestone for Biosign. During the past 15 months, the Company has executed a strategy to pivot from developing and distributing medical devices to one where we develop and deploy Healthcare IT solutions, primarily through our software and service offerings. The Company intends to continue its efforts to supply value to large enterprise clients through a unique combination of our proprietary Pulsewave products and integrated software solutions.”
